Our Pledge And Promise

The more than 10,000 hometown daily and weekly newspapers of America, their publishers, editors and staffs, and the National Editorial Association were given special recognition today in Chicago in observance of the opening of the 20th anniversary of National Newspaper Week, Oct. 15-21.

A citation and award "for devoted service in upholding and preserving these traditional fundamental American rights: Freedom of religion, Freedom of speech, Freedom of enterprise, and Freedom of the press."

"America's independent hometown newspapers have long been a bulwark of strength and freedom in our nation. They will continue to contribute to a sound foundation as they represent and chronicle the independent grass-roots thinking of freedom-loving Americans everywhere."

"The price of liberty and freedom is indeed eternal vigilance by newspapers and the public working together. Without the public's right to know what goes on in their government and without the freedom of expression and the freedom of newspapers to print the truth, there could be no real freedom for the individual in America."

"We're for the Glades, Palm Beach County, State of Florida, the United States, and then - God bless the world of it."

"The 'fors' are listed in order of importance."

Glades Blood Bank Pioneer Hits Record Year Will Be Reality By November 17 With Over 5 Million Gross

Preliminary plans for a blood donor day to establish an associate account in the Palm Beach County Blood Bank for the Glades took place at a luncheon meeting at Cottage Grill Tuesday when civic club representatives met with PBC Blood Bank officials.

H. R. Hitchcock, administrator of the blood bank, said it would be set for the initial phase of the plan to acquire a credit of 75 cents of blood or more. The program will have the full support of the civic clubs at Belle Glade and Everglades American Legion Post 20 through Belle Glade Memorial Hospital.

The next organizational meeting with representatives from all civic clubs interested will be held Oct. 23 at 8 p. m. at the Legion Hall.

Purpose of this meeting will be to pick up literature and get a briefing on the plan for donor day. Later meetings at the same place and time on Nov. 12 and 19 will be for the purpose of reporting on progress and mapping need efforts.

Hitchcock explained that donors of every type of blood could build the associate bank, and that credit would be available any place in the United States.

Basic reasons for the creation of a blood bank in the Glades are: 1. There has been an increase in the consumption of whole blood in the Glades. 2. Blood bank credit results in lower costs to the patient. 3. Blood kept at the local hospital is not now on hand - would be a life-saving reality when needed.

Equipment will be obtained at the Belle Glade hospital to store blood under National Institute of Standards.

Information for donors will be disseminated through civic club representatives, press, radio and television.

The Local Draft Board will be closed Tuesday, Oct. 20 and Thursday, Oct. 22. Mrs. F. W. Quinn, clerk, will act as relief clerk at the Clewiston board for these two days.

Local Board Will Be Closed Oct. 20 and 22

Roberts Gains Legislative Stature

Palm Beach County Representative Robert Roberts is shown with chief of the country club, where the Tallahassee Chamber of Commerce entertained Florida's legislators, as a good-will gesture.

The request of the news boys to get this picture of Roberts indicates the newsworthiness of Roberts in the balliwick of the "junk chop" clique of the Legislature.

Roberts' further recognition as a member of the Legislative Council is the wide publicity in the migrant labor regulations and enforcement following legislative action as modified at a meeting with the Governor last week.

Notification of membership on the Roads Committee of the Legislative Council was announced at the same Tallahassee get-together last week. Senatorial membership of five and House membership of five finds Roberts the only South Florida member.

During the last Legislature, Roberts led the move to include publicity and advertisement by the Florida Development Commission of Florida Agriculture, despite administration opposition. A four hundred thousand dollar fund was included for summer acceptance of all Florida farm products in a slogan HERALD.

received a report of acceptance "Good Things Come From a plan to be immediately effective. This plan calls for producing an "umbrella of consumer acceptance" of all Florida farm products in a slogan HERALD.

Public And District Officials Witness Cornerstone Rites For Masonic Lodge

Laying of the cornerstone of the Belle Glade Lodge 273 F & AM hall Saturday at 3 p. m. was a significant step in the history of the lodge, the reality of a dream which began during the early years of the lodge's organization.

A procession led by the Shrine Drum & Bugle Corp from the Palm Beach County Shrine Club and Mahi Temple made its way from the Benevolent Hall on the north side of the city to the cornerstone site on South Main St. The ceremony opened with patriotic and religious observances then led to the reading of the contents of a sealed box placed in the stone.

Sealed Box
Into the copper box for posterity went an envelope of 1,000 coins, a history of the Belle Glade lodge, a charter member list, Grand Lodge proceedings covering the constituting of the lodge in 1941 and a synopsis of the Grand Lodge Proceedings of 1959.

The box also contained a construction picture of the temple, a list of officers and building committee of the lodge, also the building and architect along with two copies of The Belle Glade Herald with stories of the temple construction and a cover-page by the pouring of wine as a symbol of refreshment; and by the pouring of oil as an emblem of peace and joy.

Ceremony
Under the leadership of Acting Grand Master Right Worshipful William S. Christian, Jr., Grand Wardens, Miami, the solemn ceremony based on ancient rites took place with some 15 persons taking part.

The procession formed a rank on three sides of the building. The Grand Master spread cement on the stone's resting place then sealed the copper box into the stone.

The stone was squared, leveled and plumbed according to tradition. The Acting Grand Master pronounced the stone true and trusty with these words:

"To the Glory of God, the Everlasting Father, the Great Architect of the Universe! This cornerstone having been duly tested by the ancient implement of free Masonry, I declare it to be well formed, true and trusty."

SAVE THE CHILDREN FEDERATION BUNDLE DAYS... Students donate good, used clothing for children and adults in the Southern Mountains and overseas as part of SCF's annual nationwide project of children helping children. Their reward? A pretty smile, the knowledge of a good deed done, and a practical lesson in history, human geography, and the social sciences.

South Bay School Has Set Oct. 15 For Donated Clothing "Bundle Day"

The South Bay School has taken "Children Helping Children" as the theme of its Oct. 15, Save the Children Federation Bundle Day Clothing Collection.

Supported since its inception by the nation's educators and school children, the Bundle Day Clothing Collection is its 18th year under the auspices of Save the Children Federation, a non-profit, non-sectarian organization saving the needs of children in this country and overseas.

Says H. A. Ouellette, Principal, "Our children, their enthusiasm supported by that of parents and friends, can gain great knowledge of applied social science while helping Save the Children Federation meet the pressing need for clothing among underprivileged children in the Southern Mountains and overseas. More important, they will know the joy of helping others less fortunate than themselves."

Parents and neighbors are urged to empty clothes storage areas of good, used winter and summer garments their families no longer need. Clothes for babies, children and adults, as well as sheets and blankets are requested. Low-heeled shoes and overcoats of every size are especially useful. Last year during the coldest weather, many children of the Southern Mountains walked to school barefoot. Many others did not attend school because they lacked adequate clothing.

The Federation's program in the Southern Mountains helps the distribution of clothing through SCF Clothing Centers where clothing is made available at very low prices, thus enabling a poor but proud people to maintain their self-respect. Additional clothing is distributed without charge through County Welfare and Attendance Officers to those who cannot afford to pay. Save the Children Federation also maintains a stockpile of clothing to meet disaster needs at home and overseas.

Save the Children Federation is the only truly non-sectarian child welfare organization collecting used clothing in schools on a nationwide basis. Through the Federation, children in underprivileged areas at home and overseas are sponsored by compassionate Americans. As part of its program of Community and School Self-help Projects for Children, the Federation assists and inspires villagers and parents to help themselves make a better life for their children in the United States and overseas.

Good Ram Defense Club Officers Didn't Stop Tigers At B. G. High

Clewiston's Tigers dropped Belle Glade's Golden Rams last Friday in a home game which gave the Tigers top billing in the mythical Glades championship after wins over Pahokee and Okeechobee. Clewiston is 2-0 in conference play.

The 19-0 contest was a close game as shown by the fact that at the end of the half Clewiston had a minus 12 yards for rushing and rushing for the full game while Belle Glade had 167 yards on the ground and no passing yardage.

Defensive line-backer Gary Neuman and Lineman Butch Dwyer played the whole game without rest and provided the main strength in the Ram defense.

Wilmer Hayes, Clewiston's all-conference guard last year, intercepted a Charles Lutz pass with 29 seconds left in the first half and went 64 yards for a touchdown. Carl Ferrara, Jr.'s conversion try failed.

Oecil Nall, Tiger lineman playing his first year of ball, blocked a pichout and picked up the fumble to run 60 yards for another score. Clewiston scored on their only drive of the game from their 45 in the fourth quarter. Darrell Dyal passed to Nall for the score and Dyal ran the extra point.

The Rams late in the fourth period after recovering a fumble on the Clewiston 17, John Chamblie and Roger Walker moved the ball to the four and Claude Robertson bumped in for the score.

$400,000 Appropriated By LegislatureAdvertising Plan Will Benefit Truck Crop Producers

Full color ads in magazines of 7,000,000 circulation to consumers, ads to wholesale buyers and publicity in the leading newspapers, and magazines of Florida's truck crop market areas, are the principal efforts of the Florida Improvement Commission to aid truck crop producers in the state, according to information received by Representative Emmett Roberts on a trip to Tallahassee recently.

With opposition from the administration running head-on to ill feelings of the small counties to the Improvement Commission because of lack of consideration for agriculture by the commission, and because of ill-advised comments by "experts" of the commission State Representative Emmett Roberts successfully guided a $400,000 appropriation for promotion of agricultural products.

Now, following a study and an analysis by a practical advertising expert, George Evans Company of Ft. Lauderdale, the commission seemingly is entering into a practical plan to aid Florida's farm products, and especially the truck crops.

One of the main objects of the plan is to impress producers and shippers with the importance of identifying the produce as "Florida Produced" as well as critical consideration of grading and packaging.

The analysis and conclusions reached are impressive and substantial.

After determining that better than 90% of Florida's farm product market lies in metropolitan areas between the Mississippi and the Atlantic, and eastern Canada, it was determined that two magazines devoted to Food - "Everywoman's Family Circle" and "Woman's Day" - gives a seven million circulation in that area to 98% of the Florida food market.

Coverage, Character and Cost - The "Three Cs" - principle of advertising will be used to reach wholesale buyers of truck crops, and are at their competitive best, and are seasonally available.

The "Packer" and "Produce News" will be used to reach wholesale buyers of truck crops. It will be pointed out to them what Florida is doing to make Florida produce easier to sell.

Florida commodity producing groups may well adjust their own advertising efforts to accompany the commission's program to secure advantage for their specific crops.

With the statement that "In publications of real substance and integrity, there is no correlation between advertising space purchased and use of publicity material in editorial space," the plan anticipates the use of daily weekly and periodical press for publicity stories.

There will be regular releases for each truck crop, seasonally timed, in feature stories, including photography. Test kitchen will be manned by dietitians, Home Economics, and famous chefs of Florida's leading restaurants, to provide scientific data and reader interest in the stories.

Specialized releases will be made to publications in the supermarket field in the whole and retail grocery trade. Of course, the releases to publications in the chain, supermarket and retail grocery trade will be coldly factual and devoid of romance and puffery.

There will be releases to the hotel and restaurant trade. The commission has already set up a smooth working publicity bureau with amicable relations with the leading publications of the country. By aiding food specialists and minor adjustments, this bureau is ready to tackle the job of aiding Florida's food producing industries in sale of products.

With the elimination of citrus, which is handled by the Florida Citrus Commission, truck crops account for more than a third of the value of Florida's agricultural production.

You ask, do you, why such a portion of Florida's industry could have been forgotten in the commission's work? Truck crop producers should be appreciative to Emmett Roberts for removing the fog!

This start will undoubtedly point the way to cooperative effort by commission and commodity groups.

4 BEL AIRS—Sumptuous as these Bel Airs are to behold, they're priced just above Chevy's thriftest models. And, like all Chevrolets, they give you a choice of two of the best engines going as standard equipment—the famed Hi-Thrift 6 and a new Economy Turbo-Fire V8 that gets up to 10% more miles out of a gallon of regular while giving you more "grip" at normal speeds. Besides the 4-door Bel Air sedan above, there are a 2-door sedan, sport sedan and sport coupe.

3 BISCAYNES—These (though you'd never know to look at them) are the lowest priced of the superlative '60 Chevrolets. They bring you the same basic beauty and relaxing roominess as the other models. And, like all Chevrolets, they ride on crash-tested Full Coil suspension, isolated from road shock and noise by thicker, newly designed body mounts. Along with the 4-door Biscayne sedan above, you have your choice of a 2-door and a utility sedan.

5 STATION WAGONS—These Chevy wagons are stunningly styled to carry you away. And they've got the kind of cargo space (over 10 ft. from the back of the front seat to the tip of the tailgate) to carry away most anything you want to take with you. Besides that thrifty 2-door Brookwood above, you have your choice of a 4-door Brookwood, 4-door Parkwood, 9-passenger Kingwood and the nifty Nomad.

Florida Consumers Boost LP-Gas Sales Over 1957 Levels New Report Shows

Florida consumers used 198.6 million gallons of liquefied petroleum gas in 1958, a 29.4 per cent increase over 1957. These official figures are based on the annual report of LP-Gas sales recently released by the U. S. Bureau of Mines.

Total national sales of LP-Gas reached a record 7.4 billion gallons in 1958, an 8 per cent increase over 1957. In commenting on the 1958 record, Frank DeVoe, president of the National LP-Gas Council, predicted that a new sales record will be set in 1959 and estimated that 4.1 billion gallons of the fuel were sold in the first six months of this year. This would represent an 11 per cent increase over the first half of 1958.

DeVoe pointed out that Florida ranked seventh in overall LP-Gas sales last year. Sales of LP-Gas as motor fuel increased 37.7 per cent in Florida last year for a total of 13.2 million gallons. More than 850 million gallons were used as a motor fuel throughout the nation in 1958. Domestic and commercial consumption amounted to 130.9 million gallons, a 21.6 increase over 1957.

DeVoe explained that the Florida figures show that most LP-Gas consumed in the state is used in homes, businesses and on farms beyond city gas mains.

In suburban, small town and rural areas, LP-Gas is used for cooking, water heating, space heating, clothes drying, refrigeration, air conditioning and incineration.

This fuel, DeVoe said, is used to power an increasing number of farm tractors, industrial lift trucks, motor trucks, buses and taxi fleets.

During National Newspaper Week we'd like to call attention to Spate and his dog in their efforts to help us reach the public with our newspapers.

Seasonal Music Lesson

There's a new sound in our town, or perhaps it's new words to an old familiar tune we've heard before. From the grinding clank of the rail cars as they bang together on a side track to the chugging growl of a produce truck as it strains through the muck fields on the way to the packing house, even to the meshing crunch of the harvesters' foot in the soil, the sound of a season of vegetable production is almost everywhere.

As a flower opens its petals to the sunshine, the Glades springs to life from the dormant summer months to answer the cry of the hungry Yankee buyers. As this strange music of activity brings its proceeds of energy on our ears, don't be carried away. Be alert, play it safe.

With dogs yapping, more children dashing through the streets and trucks and trains straining along with a schedule to meet, be certain you play it safe and take an extra measure of caution. Accidents don't always happen at the other fellow.

Whether you're driving, walking or working with specialized machinery, don't let that musical beat of a season cause you to take one careless moment.

For while the musical cadence of a season may be so scored to omit discords and unpleasant passages, we're certain you'll agree it's more popular than the tune of a hospital bed or even hard music.

A Good Crop Of People

Another season of vegetable harvesting has started in the Glades with the bumper crop unless Mother Nature erupts with adverse conditions. The flood of workers pouring into the area is bringing their hopes and their dreams of making a good living. One point is certain, with a little "scrutiny" in their pockets, they'll be out to spend their money. Some will live frugally on their earnings. Others will be a little ahead of the game and want to stretch out and buy things.

Merchants know their annual survival depends vitally on what they're able to do during a season, and even to do to entice folks into their places of business. They'll be making special purchases to create sales, mark-downs, bargains and all-around good buys. Before you, the customer, dart out on a tangent and begin spending money, check with the merchants.

Our advertising columns will be packed with announcements about local prices and local products. Give your local merchant the first crack at making a sale. By so doing, you enter into the circle of our economy.

Local merchants make money which they in turn dole out in salaries to Glades workers. By spending at home, you add to our economy.

As profits mount, the retailer may expand his scope of services whether it's by bringing in a larger variety of merchandise to meet the growing demand, or whether it's by investing his profits in other facets of Glades economy.

The Glades wheel of economy is a big one, but with a lot of shoulders behind it, we'll have a good season.

Uncle Dan From Democrat River Says

Dear Mister Editor: When the weather is right for it, I spend a heap of my time just setting on the front porch and rocking. A feller can do some mighty sound thinking while he's setting and rocking.

I always rock with the grain on account of rocking against the grain makes the planks squeak and the noise reminds my old folks of a few chores I ain't finished. I reckon most of the folks in town ain't saw a rocking chair in 10 years, and if you had one the chances is you ain't got no front porch to rock it on. When you town folks throw your rocking chairs away and start building houses without no front porches, is when you mighty sound thinkin' there ain't nothing in this world that gives a feller the feeling that he's at peace with himself and the world like setting and rocking for a spell. If Khrushchev and them Russian bandits would git a front porch and some rocking chairs, the world wouldn't need no summit thinkin'. Last night my good neighbor Zeke Grubb come by and me and him rocked and talked for a couple hours. Zeke is a real good rocker and talker. He said he had writ his Congressman for some data last Spring and his letter was referred to Agriculture Department, and from there to several other Departments. Right now, says Zeke, he's hearing from the State Department. He figures he'll get the data in time for the 1960 elections, along with a letter from his Congressman on how hard he's been working on the project.

Zeke is always good for a fancy yarn or two. He was telling last night about the Sunday morning this feller went to church and nobody showed up but the preacher and him. The preacher come down to the pew and asked this feller, "Brother, if you took a load of hay to the pasture and didn't but one cow show up, would you feed her the whole load?"

Yours truly, Uncle Dan

Best green celery for shipping!

Here are celery varieties specially developed and tested for shipping from Florida—outstanding for color, compactness, shape, and keeping qualities!

Tall Utah No. 52-70 is a Ferry-Morse development that is very compact and tightly shingled with high rib count. Thick, smooth ribs are medium dark green. Highly resistant to Brown Check.

Compak 1 is similar in type to Tall Utah 52-70, but has deeper color, holds better, and does not blanch as fast. It is recommended for early harvest in cool weather. Plant slightly shorter Compak 2 for harvest in warmer weather. Resistant to Brown Check and to boron deficiency.

Emerald is a new, early, blight resistant variety that is intermediate in type between Summer Pascal and Utah. It is specially suited for maturity during warm weather.
